

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY PUBLIC SERVICE HONOR CODE

Proposed by Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics
February 26, 2014

Passed by Board of County Commissioners
October 20, 2015

The background features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of blue, primarily on the right side of the slide, creating a modern, layered effect.

Who is covered by the Honor Code?

- ▶ Applies to all elected and appointed County officials and all County employees.
 - Includes mandatory and recommended standards of honorable behavior based upon public trust.
 - Provides for administrative enforcement for all employees under mayor's authority.
 - Provides for oversight by Commission on Ethics of elected officials and employees not under authority of mayor.

What are the five basic requirements?

1. Serve and protect public interest over personal or institutional interest or loyalty.

2. Act as the public's surrogate by protecting it against waste or fraud.

3. Respect and uphold laws, ordinances and regulations protecting the public against abuses in County government by assisting authorities charged with protecting the public trust.

4. Report any information from personal knowledge concerning activity which may constitute a crime, immediately and personally to either the State Attorney or Miami-Dade County Grand Jury.

5. Cooperate fully with investigating authorities in providing truthful testimony and relevant information about any alleged violation of the public trust.

County Supervisors and Ethics Officers are to encourage employees to:

- 1) Report violations of County ethics code to Commission on Ethics.

- 2) Report waste, fraud or abuse of public resources to Inspector General.

How do I report violations & can I do so anonymously?

1. No prescribed method of reporting violations.
2. Violations may be reported orally, in writing or electronically.
3. May be done anonymously if proof of reporting is maintained.

The background features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of blue, ranging from light sky blue to deep navy blue. These shapes are primarily located on the right side of the frame, creating a modern, layered effect. The text is centered on the left side of the image.

What are the punishments and rewards for compliance?

Mayor or designee uses administrative process of County for violations by officials or employees subject to Mayor's authority.

Commission on Ethics may reprimand elected officials and employees not under Mayor's authority.

Honor Code compliance may be considered in connection with merit increases, promotions and professional recognition.

The background features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of blue, ranging from light sky blue to deep navy blue. These shapes are primarily located on the right side of the frame, creating a modern, layered effect. The text is centered on the left side of the image.

What about retaliation against me if I speak up about violations?

Dismissal, discipline or other adverse personnel action for complying with Honor Code may be a violation of the Ethics Code.

Redress for adverse action may be sought from Mayor or Ethics Commission.

What if I have questions about the Honor Code and how it is interpreted?

Ethics Commission may issue binding opinions interpreting Honor Code.

Ethics Commission will include Honor Code in Ethics Training.

 - Immediate Family Members Sec. 2-11.1(b)(9)
 - ▶ Spouse/Domestic Partner
 - ▶ Parents/Stepparents
 - ▶ Siblings/Half-Siblings/Step-Siblings
 - ▶ Children/Stepchildren

What does it mean?

- Selling products or services to the County through a business owned by a County employee or by an immediate family member of the employee.
- Obtaining any benefit from the County that requires application and contract. (Grants)
- Includes contracting as a Section 8 Landlord or applying for Housing Assistance Programs with the County.

May a County employee or immediate family member contract with the County?

A County employee or immediate family member may contract with the County if:

- required vendor processes are followed
- the contract is not with the employee's department
- neither the employee nor the immediate family member administers or oversees the contract
- the employee does not lobby for the contract
- an Ethics Opinion is obtained in advance
- the employee files an annual Outside Employment Statement if he or she is the contractor

What about Housing Assistance?

Sec.2-11.1(c)(5)(5)

A County employee or his or her immediate family member may apply for housing assistance programs administered by the County if the employee or his or her immediate family member:

- is eligible for the assistance
- the employee or his or her immediate family member does not work in the administration of your program of interest for the entire period of time that housing assistance is received
- obtains an opinion from Ethics Commission

Home-owner Beautification Program

2. Outside Employment

Permission First

- County employees must first obtain permission to engage in outside employment from their department director.
- The Department Director may grant or deny the outside employment request, even if the outside employment request does not otherwise conflict with County employment.
- Employees should contact their department's personnel representative.

Ethics Commission

Opinions re: Conflicting Employment

- Section 2-11.1 (j) of the Ethics Code prohibits County employees from engaging in outside employment that would impair his or her “independence of judgment in the performance of his or her public duties” or otherwise constitute conflicting outside employment.

Outside Employment:

Types of Activities Considered

Paid Employment

- Working for any person, firm, corporation or entity, including a non-profit entity.
- Working as an independent contractor.
- Working as an agent (for example, insurance agent).

Business Owned by County Employee

- Self-employed.
- Operating a business, even if it not it is incorporated and even if the business does not generate any income or profit.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT:

Types of Activities Considered

Internet Sales

- Running a web-based business, regardless of whether the employee generates any income.

Rental Properties

- Ownership of 3 or more rental units, unless a management company is hired to manage the units for the owner.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT:

Types of Activities Considered

Providing services to a business owned by an immediate family member

- Immediate family member: spouse, domestic partner, parents, stepparents, children and stepchildren.
- Helping to run the business, whether paid or unpaid.
- Includes bookkeeping, legal services, marketing services, servicing clients, among others.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT:

Types of Activities Considered

Board Membership (For-Profit Corporations)

- Compensated board membership
- Uncompensated board membership if the employee is actively involved in the management of the organization

However...

Board Membership (Non-Profit Corporations)

- Uncompensated service on a non-profit entity's board is not considered outside employment.

Outside Employment: Prohibitions

- No use of County time, resources or equipment.
- No disclosure of confidential information.
- No representing private employer, company, or clients before the County.
- No use of County position to secure special benefits for yourself, your employer, or clients.

Outside Employment: Case Study

Mr. Smith is a County employee who engages in outside employment as an insurance agent. He is paid on a commission basis. He wants to take every opportunity he can to sell insurance policies and earn a commission, so during his workday at the County he speaks with his fellow employees about the policies he sells. He has access in his County position to confidential customer and employee lists. He uses them to sell insurance policies by sending marketing

Outside Employment: Case Study

Does Mr. Smith's outside employment constitute a prohibited conflict of interest?

Yes.

- Mr. Smith is selling insurance during his County work hours, and he is using his County email.
- Mr. Smith is using confidential County customer and employee lists to sell insurance policies for personal profit.
- Mr. Smith's desire to sell insurance policies to County employees and customers places his personal interests in conflict with his County job responsibilities.

Source of Outside Employment Income Statement

- Section 2-11.1(k)(2) of the Ethics Code requires all County employees engaged in any outside employment to file, under oath, an annual report indicating:
 - The source of the outside employment.
 - The nature of the work being done.
 - Any amount or types of money or other consideration received by the employee from the outside employment.
 - Reports shall be filed by noon on July 1st of each year with the Supervisor of Elections.

Staff Attorney

TWO-YEAR RULE

Section 2-11.1(q)

Prohibits any former County elected official, personnel, or employee - who was employed by the County within the past two years - from lobbying any County officer, departmental personnel, or employee on any matter in which the County, or its agencies, is a party or has any direct or indirect interest

WHEN DOES THE TWO-YEAR RULE BEGIN?

The two years begin running when the County official or employee has officially separated from County employment.

Exceptions to the two-year rule

A former County official or employee does not have to wait two years before he or she may engage in the following activities with the County :

- Representing a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization;
- Representing other government agencies;
- Representing educational institutions.

Other Exceptions to the two-year rule

Performing routine duties, such as submitting administrative requests or applications to a board;

Performing ministerial duties, such as, obtaining information about procurement procedures;

Providing management or oversight of existing County projects;

Meeting with County staff on a matter related to an already awarded contract;

Representing clients at quasi-judicial proceedings.

FORMER COUNTY EMPLOYEE CONTRACTING WITH THE COUNTY

A former County official or employee does not have to wait two years before transacting business with the County or working for County contractors AS LONG AS he or she does not lobby the County.

QUESTION

True or False - A former County employee, who left the County six (6) months prior, may meet with County personnel on behalf of his/her new private employer to discuss the purchase of a product.

ANSWER

False - A County employee may not lobby any County official or employee for two (2) years after leaving County employment in connection with any matter in which the County is a party or has any interest, direct or indirect.

REVERSE TWO-YEAR RULE

Section 2-11.1(x)

- Any County employee who
- In the two (2) years prior to his or her County employment
- Was employed by or held a controlling financial interest (10%) in a for-profit business entity
- May NOT perform any County “contract-related duties” regarding that previous employer
- Where the previous employer is presently a County bidder, proposer, service provider, contractor, or vendor.

WHAT CONSTITUTES “ CONTRACT-RELATED DUTIES” ?

- A County employee may not serve on a County certification, evaluation, selection, technical review, or negotiation committee where his or her former employer is the applicant.
- A County employee may not be involved in any approval, recommendation, modification, termination, enforcement, oversight or administration of a contract between the County and his or her former employer.

QUESTION

True or False - A County employee must wait two (2) years before performing “contract-related duties” involving his/her former employer.

ANSWER

True - The reverse two-year rule prohibits a County employee from performing “contract related duties” involving his/her former employee for a period of two (2) years.

Lobbyist Registration

Section 2-11.1(s)

Who is a Lobbyist?

Any person, firm or corporation employed, designated or retained by a principal (whether paid or not), or that contracts with a third party to perform lobbying activities on behalf of a principal seeking the passage, defeat or modification of:

- Any action/decision/recommendation of the Mayor/ County Commission or any County board or committee, or County personnel
- Any action/decision/recommendation which will foreseeably be heard or reviewed by County personnel

Who is not a lobbyist?

- A public officer, employee or appointee appearing in his or her official capacity as a government representative;
- Attorneys or other representatives solely appearing at quasi-judicial proceedings;
- Expert witnesses at public meetings, who provide only scientific, technical, or specialized information;
- Unpaid neighborhood association representatives;
- Unpaid representatives of a non-profit community-based organization without special compensation and only when requesting a grant;

- Persons engaged in specified procurement matters: pre-bid conferences, submitting bid only, responding to question, providing technical experts to explain or demonstrate without advocacy, post-award contract management, market research, piggybacks, emergency purchases.

PROCUREMENT REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Any person who appears only as a technical expert or employed by the principal but not as a lobbyist, during a recorded oral presentation before a County selection committee or a recorded negotiation meeting, is not required to register as a lobbyist but must be listed on the Affidavit(s) included in the Procurement Packet.

Responsibilities of County officials and personnel: DILIGENCE!

- County Commissioners and County personnel shall be diligent in ascertaining whether a lobbyist is registered with the Clerk of the Board before permitting that individual to lobby him/her about a County issue: Maintain Written Log
- Commissioners and County personnel may not knowingly permit themselves to be lobbied by a person who is not registered.

Question

True or False - A County employee does not have to worry about lobbyists, only an elected official does.

Answer

False - A County employee may be lobbied about an action, decision or recommendation he/she will be making, and which may be reviewed by a County board or Committee or in a procurement setting. A County employee has a responsibility to ascertain whether an individual who is going to lobby him/her is registered as a lobbyist.

CONE OF SILENCE

Section 2-11.1(t)

- suspension and removal or impeachment;
- conviction of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable by up to one year in jail, or $1,000 fine, or both.

PUBLIC RECORDS LAW:

Violations & Consequences

Civil Actions:

- A petitioner who claims to have been denied the right to inspect and/or copy public records is entitled to an immediate hearing.
- Attorney's fees are recoverable by the petitioner who prevails, but not if the records request is intended to harass or cause a violation.

Ethics Violations:

- A County officer/employee found by the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics to have intentionally violated the Citizens' Bill of Rights' public records provisions

QUESTION 1:

PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

TRUE or FALSE:

Citizen is seeking public records from County Department. Citizen must fill out the public records request form from County Department before County Department must respond to Citizen's request.

QUESTION 1:

PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

ANSWER: FALSE

Nothing in the Public Records Law permits a public entity or agency to withhold a public record because the person requesting the record did not fill out a specific request form drafted by that entity or agency. An oral request for a public record is just as valid and legally enforceable as a written request.
