Vice Chair, State Senator Ashley V. Gantt

Florida Senate | District 34

Ashley V. Gantt, Esq. is a founding partner of Bracy Davis, Gantt, & Rayner, P.A., where she leverages her diverse legal and professional experience to provide strategic, client-centered representation in the areas of probate, estate planning, civil litigation, and personal injury.

A proud graduate of the University of Florida, Ashley began her professional career in education through Teach for America's Mississippi Delta Corps, later returning home to teach in Miami-Dade County Public Schools. After nearly seven years in the classroom, she pursued her calling in the law, earning her J.D. from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law.

Ashley began her legal career as an Assistant Public Defender in Broward County, where she gained extensive trial experience and was twice awarded the "Hat Trick" by the Broward Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys for securing three consecutive not guilty verdicts. Her legal acumen, fearless advocacy, and passion for justice have earned her recognition across the state.

Beyond the courtroom, Ashley is a dedicated public servant and was elected as a Florida Senator for Senate District 34 after serving as a Florida State Representative for House District 109. She remains actively engaged in legal and civic leadership, having served as President of the T.J. Reddick Bar Association, a board member of the Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association, and a Fellow of The Florida Bar's Wm. Reece Smith Jr. Leadership Academy.

Ashley is a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and The Links, Inc. and continues to advocate for equity, education, and generational wealth in underserved communities.
